Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12 June 2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-9, 13, 16, 17 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Reilly et al (US 5,779,675).

Reilly teaches an injector with a housing (20), a drive member (within 20), a syringe retaining mechanism (generally 114, Fig 10), wherein pushing the syringe towards the housing in an axial direction actuates the retaining mechanism. (Figs 10-11). The retaining mechanism comprises one or more capture members (114), corresponding members (120) of the syringe, and actuators (126) or springs (not shown, Col 6 line 32) and grooved ring 140.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Reilly '675 in view of U.S. Patent No'. 5,383,858 to Reilly et al

Reilly '675 discloses the claimed invention as shown above. Reilly '675 does not disclose an encoding device. Reilly discloses an encoding device 70 on a syringe. See Figure 2. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the invention of Reilly '675, by including an encoding device, as suggested by Reilly, in order to prevent misdose of medication to a patient.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 18-20 are allowed.
6. Claims 14 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-9, 12-13, 16, 17, and 21 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US 4,838,857; US 5,545,140.
